An informal hearing and conference with representatives of carriers, shippers, boards of trade, chambers of commerce and traffic bureaus in respect to the above mentioned application, after due notice to the public, was held by this commission on August 17. There has been filed with the commission stenographic reports of the evidence before the interstate commerce commission and copies of its report and order in the matter. A member of this commission attended the hearings by the interstate commerce commission and has reported there on to this commission.

This commission is satisfied from the record that because of increased costs of operations arising out of advances in wages and in the prices of materials, supplies and equipment, and the apparent decreased purchasing power of the dollar, as also the necessity arising out of the mandatory provisions of the federal transportation act of 1920 requiring for the time being such rates, fares and charges as will earn, with honest, economical and efficient management and reasonable expenditures for maintenance of way, structures and equipment, an aggregate annual new railway operating income, equal as nearly as may be to 6 per cent per annum on the aggregate value of the railway property of such carriers held for and used in transportation service, operating revenues in excess of those produced by existing rates, fares and charges, must be provided.

Speaking before the largest audi ence that ever assembled at a po litical meeting in Crisp county, packing the two floors of the court. house, while more than a hundred people were unable to get even standing room, Governor Dorsey delivered a powerful adress here at 11 o'clock this morning, concluding with a fervent, eloquent appeal .c. true democracy and 100 per cent Americanism, that swept the great throng literally to its feet.

He concluded the meeting with an old-fashloned democratic lovefeast, day. Visitors from north, south such as has never been seen before in Georgia in many years. It was an inspiring demonstration, and yesterday bringing good news from more than one old veteran of democracy had tears streaming down his cheeks as he shook the governor's ceived from various Dorsey speakhand and pledged a new allegiance ers, indicating that they were hav to the party of the fathers, the sal- ing splendid meetings at nearly ev vation of the south in reconstruction, and the hope of America the entire state was on fire with and the world today.

It was a representative farmers udience that greeted the governor here, there being scores of former Watson and Smith followers among few of the Watson supporters, rushed up to him at the conclusion of the address and declared they would vote for him and work for

"Yes, and pray for you, too, Hugh, said one motherly old lady, who had followed her husband to the front, "for my boy fought and fell for his country, and no man shall be unfaithful to it and get my prayers or all over the state. The citizens of Crisp never accorded such an ovation before to any man, nor did they ever hear before such a ringing denunciation of demagogury and insurgency and radicalism and fanaticism.

Governor Dorsey was introduced eming, county ordinary, who dwelt upon the true and undefiled Americanism of Georgia's stalwart young war governor. whose fidelity to trust had never been questioned, who could not be affrighted by menaces, nor intimidated nor warped from the straight path of duty by polical expediency. The great auditorium shook under the applause of the assembled crowd as he pointed to Govorner Dorsey and declared: 'In peace he serve? us without a blemish, in his offical candidate of the loyal democrats has career, in the stress of war, his militant young spirit was untiring in the interest of the boys in khaki, and of the other great army at home who worked and fought to sustai them and to keep the home fires burning. As he concluded in a great burst of eloquence that held the audience spellbound by its fluency and its sincerity, the audience, as if the overwhelming voice of one man, shouted its approval, and it was more than a minute before Gover nor Dorsey could proceed, so great and forceful was the demonstration, not alone for Dorsey, the man, but Continued on Page 17, Column 5.

saw the army's need during the frantic effort made to capture the Polish capital, and made plans accordingly, but was too late. He crossed into Germany and reached an agreement with representatives of the German government by which it would supply ammunition to the bolsheviki.

"The ammunition has been paid for, in part, out of the soviet jewel fund, which includes the crown jewels. It was the intention of the bolsheviki to reserve this fund solely for propaganda purposes in the East, but Germany insisted upon cash payment. The second object of Trottky's visit to East Prussia was to prevent munitions from reaching Poland, and to accomplish this object he employed Germans at Danzig with money from the same 'jewel fund'. A large traffic in arms took place between the Russians and Germans in the neighborhood of Soldau."

DEMANDED FOR POLES.

Parls, August 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Fremier Millerand, of France, acting as president of the supreme council, has teelgraphed Sir Reginald Tower, allied high commissioner at Danzig, inviting him to assure Poland complete liberty in the importation of war material through Danzig, as provided for in the Versailles treaty.

Premier Millerand also invited Sir Reginald to use all the rescoures in his power to assist in the unloading of ammunition already in the Danzig roads and all that may reach the free city in the future.

The French premier's instructions came shortly after the British Charge D'Affaires Henderson called at the foreign office and informed M. Millerand that Premier Lloyd-George recognized "the absolutely formal right of Poland to export and import through Danzig without restriction, as provided in Article 104 of the Versailles treaty."

TO UNITED STATES NOTE.

Parls, August 24.—The French foreigh office announced today that the government regarded the new attitude taken by Premiers Lloyd George and Golitit concerning soviet Russia and Poland as due entirely to the American note to Italy.

The premiers' attitude was expressed in the note they sent France from Lucerne yesterday, in which they stated they were in accord with the United States and France that Poland would endanger her Independence if she accepted the soviet terms.

The communication of the British and Italian prime ministers was answered by the French foreign office with a note expressing pleasure that they expressed the same views with regard to the Polish situation that France holds.

The meetings of M. Millerand, the French premier, and Premier Giolitti, to be held in Aix-le-Bains, remains fixed for the middle of September, it was announced this afternoon, and M. Millerand will not meet Premier Lloyd-George until later unless developments alter the situation.

HOW PARTY CHIEFS VIEW THE CHARGES MADE BY GOV. COX

BY ROBERT J. BENDER, United News Staff Correspondent -New York, August 24.-It is the general belief among political leaders of both parties that Governor Cox must make a very good case for himself in connection with his slush-fund charges against the republican party if he is not to suffer politically beyond hope of re-

The attitude of elation about republican headquarters here permits of no other conclusion than that the republican organization is innocent of the charges Cox has launched, has its tracks satisfac torily covered or has explanations which will sweep away the odium Cox seeks to place upon the repub-solitations, and after this, the allies will execute those military and naval plans which have already been prepared to meet such a situation. The British navy is ready, within 24 hours, to put into effect a commokade against Russia.

Those close to the British premier say that he is entirely out of patience and that he has finally arrived at the conclusion that the sover leaders are insincere. He has decided, moreover, that the most vigorous action is necessary in dealing with Moscow, and he will make any evasive reply the basis for immediate action.

Failure to Report For Duty on Jury Explained by Jones Sure

Confusion of dates was given by Jerome Jones, editor of The Journal of Labor, as the reason for his failure to report to federal court Mon-day morning for jury service, at a conference Tuesday night between Mr. Jones and Judge Robert T. Er-conterence Tuesday hight between Mr. Jones and Judge Robert T. Ervin.

Mr. Jones had been subjoenaed to serve on the fraverse jury, which convened Monday, which was August 23. When Mr. Jones failed to answer "present" Monday Judge Ervin ordered his arraignment on a contempt charge.

At the time Mr. Jones was in Augusta in the interest of organized labor affairs, in which he is a leader, and did not return to Atlanta until Tuesday. He reported at once to Judge Ervin and it was agreed that if Mr. Jones reports for duty this morning all contempt charges against him will be dismissed.

on the stage. There are many plays especially written for notable stars and their presentation has depended largely on the work of portraying one genius. There is, of course, a fascination in the one-lead drama, but it makes the spectators very much dependent upon one individuality, and if the star should be incapacitated for any reason, there is inevitable disappointment. I think it is a very practical thing to suggest that our American popular government ought not to be a one-lead or a one-star drama of modern civilization. "We have been drifting lately under one-lead activities and I am sure the American people are going to welcome a change in the bill. For the supreme offering we need the all-star cast, presenting America to all the world."

No Kingship In Republic The nominee's reference to Americanism was made in expressing his apreciation of the faithfulness with which regal power is portrayed in

"There is no kingship in this republic," he said, "but thoughtful Americans are pondering about the morrow. Is civilization secure? Every moral human being wishes for a better norrow than today. "Some of our people lately have been wishing to become citizens of the world. Not so long since I met a fine elderly daughter of Virginia, who would have been justified in loasting her origin in the Old Dominion and uttering her American pride, but I was shocked to hear her say "I am no longer an American pride, but I was shocked to hear her say, 'I am no longer an Ameri-can. I am a citizen of the world.'
"Frankly, I am not so universal, I rejoice to be an American, and love the name, the land, the people and the flag."

Complainants in the injunction suits in a formal statement after announcement that the writ of certiorari, and supersedeas had been granted and that the governor had certified ratification, bitterly denounced what they characterized as "high-handed tactics and unprecedented methods." Complaints also was made that they were not "given a day in court" despite the fact that all were citizens of Nashville and easily accessible.

"It is further pointed out that under repeated decisions of the supreme court of Tennessee." the statement continued, "only orders which are affirmative in character can be suberseded and that an order negative in character, as was the injunction in the pending case cannot lesally be sunerseded. It would, therefore, appear that the action of the state officials in the present case is not only unprecedented, but it is directly onnosed to what have been heretofore considered well settled and elementary rules of law and procedure in this state.

Lawyers who have been consulted stated that they could hardly believe that such action was taken and acted on by Governor Roberts as it anpeared to them to be at least, if not revolutionary in character, in such violation of established law and procedure as to seem almost incredible."

Judge Joseph Higgins, president of the Tennessee Constitutional league, said the action of Chief Justice Lansden automatically stayed all procedure in Tennessee until the next session of the surreme court, which will be held at Knoxville September 20. At that time the anti-suffrage forces will present the matter to the court and pray that Judge Lansden's individual action be not upheld.

In the meantime the certificate of ratification is on its way to Wash-

JOHN A. BOYKIN

To the Voters of Fulton County:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Solicitor-General of the Atlanta Judicial Circuit, which office I am now holding my first term. Almost continuous sessions of court, and at times emergency divisions to serve, has deprived me of the opportunity to call on each voter in person, as I would prefer to do. Now that court has adjourned for the usual summer vacation, it is my intention and shall be my pleasure to see in person each voter that the limited time between now and the primary will permit. Should I fail to do so, please accept this as a personal request for your support. I pledge a fearless, just and impartial performance of the duties of the office, always with due regard for those who deserve to have "justice tempered with mercy." I respectfully submit my official record as a guarantee of this pledge.

With grateful appreciation for your generous support in the past, I now ask for an endorsement, and promise to so conduct the affairs of the office as to be worthy of your confidence.

Very Respectfully,

JOHN A. BOYKIN.

The petition also averred that the secretary of state and the severy officers of the house and senate, wno were made defendants to the suit and against whom injunctions were it issued, were agents and servants of the legislature, subject alone to the control and direction of the legislature as a co-ordinate branch of the state government, and that they were not required to respond to the mandate of any court in any of the state government and the state supreme court follows:

The legislators came to Athens on the invitation of the citizens of Athens and were accompanied by W. T. Saunders, democratic national committeeman from Alabama. In a speech at the banquet Representative Hill, leader of the insurgent law-makers, declared that "by the spirits of the thousands who died in the civil war and by the memory of those who sleep beneath the poppies in Flanders field to make and keep the world safe for democracy, I say to you that this will not become a centralized government, but a union composed of indestructible states, and that the Susan E. Anthony amendment will be defeated."

Speeches also were made by other visiting legislators.

The legislators were discussing early today the possibility of a return Saturday in order to participate in mass meetings throughout the state, which they have urged as a means of determining the sentiment of their constitutions. The twenty days for which under the constitution, the members re-

In answer to charges that American Legion are going contrary to spirit of its constitution in defending itself against unjust attacks from the two Toms in Georgia, Mr. Stephens read the constitution of the American Legion, and said in part: "You don't find any partisan politics there because there is none and it was never intended that there and it was never intended that there should be. Mr. Watson charged that the American Legion is a Catholic organization formed and controlled by officers of the army. There never was a more deliberate statement of known untruth. I have here a list of the enlisted men who met with that chosen few selected by the fighting divisions that carried our flag to victory and who met in Paris to form an organization to carry on the fight for 100 per cent Americanism and to uphold the ideals for which they fought. We are not going before the public of Georgia today as a political organization.

To Expose Two Toms.

"We are advocating the candidacy of no man. We win lend our great organization to no seeker of orfice. We are here to expose, by their public records, two of the greatest distoyalists in the history of the United States—two men wno stayed at nome to knile your boys in the back, while they were nighting on those bloody fields.

"We do not nave to condemn Mr. Hardwick and Mr. Watson to you you have done that while we were over there.

"Mr. Watson was condemned in the most scatning language by the United States government at a time when we were engaged in war with the most powerful enemy with which this country has ever grapped. It was stated on oath by officials of our government in Washington that watson was advocating treason in time of war.

"Mr. Hardwick so betrayed the people of the state of Georgia, whom he was sent to Washington to represent, that they overwhelmingly repudiated him in 1198 when he sought re-election.

"There is no use trying to draw a difference between Mr. Hardwick and Mr. Watson. They are two of the same stripe. I have here the public records of Mr. Hardwick and Mr. Watson. We propose to distribute copies to all of you who care to know the racts. Neither Mr. Watson or Mr. Hardwick can deny them.

eorgia in the senate was his speeches and fight against the sedition act.

"Mr. Hardwick is looked upon by reds and bolsheviki of this country as their true friend. He is so popular among these long-haired boys that in a convention in New York they nominated him for governor of Georgia. Mr. Hardwick says they employed him as a lawyer. Hardwick is not a lawyer. He has not practiced law in fifteen or twenty years.

"Hardwick fought every measure calculated to aid our forces. If there ever was a man who tried to knife his own men in time of war it was Thomas W. Hardwick. He has been placed down with Thomas E. Watson. He is speaking from the same platform. He lets Watson attack the legion; he has too much sense to do that. Watson can tell enough lies for two of them." Sinckers Blame Watson.

"Mr. Watson urged the boys of Georgia to become slackers and betray their government. There are a hundred Georgia boys, I am sure, today serving terms in the federal prisons as slackers, branded to all the world for their cowardice, for refusing their government duty which every man owes to his flag and country. Some of these boys are mountain boys who stated on oath before federal authorities that they evaded the draft on advice and instructions of Watson, who had advised them they did not have to fight for their country, that the draft was unconstitutional and he would protect them if they failed to register for service. Mr. Watson knew the draft was constitutional or he should have known it. The Confederate States of America adopted conscription, every great nation of the world had adopted it. Mr. Watson is not an ignorant man. Then why, in the face of all this did he tell these boys the act was unconstitutional?

"Mr. Watson and Hardwick both tried their best to kill the selective FOUR ARE INJURED AGED VETERAN draft act. Watson went a step IN TRAIN WRECK SOUTH OF MACON

Macon, Ga., August 24.—(Special.)
Four persons were injured, one perhaps seriously, when southbound Georgia, Florida and Southern railroad passenger train No. 5, known as the "Shoofly," was wrecked one mile south of Elko early tonight. Three of the injured are negroes.
Engineer George F. Baker, of Macon, was at the throttle. The engine and two coaches turned over, falling down a 25-foot embankment. Doctors were hurried to the scene of the wreck from Unadilla and Elko, while a relief train was rushed from Macon. Officials have gone to the wreck, which, it is expected, will be cleared during the night. The cause of the accident has not been determined. States. Imagine, if you can, our armies fighting Germany without sending men out of the United States.

"No greater tribute could be given the boys who carried on this fight than those old heroes of 1865—those noble old veterans who came back from conflict shattered in body, but not in spirit—who came back from conflict shattered in body, but not in spirit—who came back to homes devastated and ruined. They had to face slackers and traitors in Georgia, they had to whip these men just as we are trying to defeat Watson and Hardwick who so disloyally betrayed us and who have the gall to ask the highest offices in our gift.

"It has been charged against the American Legion that we are in politics, that we will ruin our organization. I have had persons to come to me who said: "We admire your organization and we want to see it live. We don't want you to destroy your organization by getting into mire of partisan politics.' We answered men who came to us when we were in the midst of, the enemy and said, 'Boyc, don't go up against the Germans: you may get killed.' If the people of Georgia had heeded that, and I know they will not say let us go to our death, and I for one will be proud of having died in such a cause. We are not in politics, but we can carry on a fight for 100 per cent Americanism if we acquaint the public with records of these men. It has been said in noisconus lies committed by satelities of unscrupulous Watson that the legion was not following our national constitution, that we had gotten into this fight contrary to the orders of our national organization. "There are over two million of your boys wno wore the uniform of your country who are members of the American Legion. If all officers commissioned from the time we declared wer until the present moment wer epresent there would be less than 300,000. Out of 2,000,000 membership less than one-seventh would be officers. We have just elected as state commander a man who was a buck private. No use saving that we are now a set of boisheviki. If we were we wo

Public Ownership on Just Basis.

"If the reforms incident to public regulation which we suggest in this report should not result in making private ownership satisfactory to the public, such reforms should at least enable public ownership to be established upon a just and equitable basis."

Development of motor bus and jitney service has been "a serious, although not a fatal competition," to trolley lines, the commission finds. Where such conveyances are operated as public carriers they should be subject to "equivalent regulatory provisions" with the trolleys, the report adds, and declares that they might well be used to supplement trolley service to advantage.

The commission recommends that that they might well be used to supplement trolley service to advantage.

The commission recommends that special assessments against trolley companies for construction and maintenance of bridges and streets also used as public highways be eliminated. It urges also that trolley extensions into new territory where property values were specially benefited should be paid for by assessment of such property "and that the amount of such assessments shold not be added to the physical vale of the corporate property."

In this connection the report enumerates among factors that have contributed to the "present plight" of the trolley lines "overbuilding into unprofitable territory, or to promote real estate enterprises, involved sometimes with political improperties."

Mrs. Atkinson was one of the leaders in the war-time activities in New England and she had charge of the women's war work.

SAVANNAH ESTATE TAX RETURNS WILL BE INVESTIGATED

Discrepancy between the appraised valuation of an estate and the amount given in for taxation has caused Governor Hugh Dorsey to make an investigation through a sepcial attorney, in the case of Solomon Sheftall, of Savannah, who died about seven years ago, leaving property valued by the appraisers at $1,319,215.83.

Notwithstanding this appraises ment, the valuation given in on the property for taxation for 1913 was $68,389; for 1918, $74,276; for 1919, $73,809, and for 1920, $73,659.

This tax valuation, which is twenty times less than the appraisement on the property, has been brought to the attention of the governor, who instructed Attorney George W. Owens, a prominent lawyer of Savannah, to investigate the reasons for the discrepancy, and to report to the governor whether or not the state has cause to proceed to collect back taxes.

THE PRESS BULLETIN MAKES APPEARANCE

Several topics of interest to the Georgia Press association are contained in the first issue of The Georgia Press Bulletin, official publication of the association, which has just come off of the press. The Bulletin will be published as often as occasion warrants, and present plans are for monthly issues.

News of supreme court decisions, district associations, shortage of print paper, the Greater Georgia movement, public printing and others along this line are in this first number. The first issue was edited by Hal Stanley, state commissioner of labor, who is corresponding secretary of the association. In the succeeding issues, Mr. Stanley will be assisted by the president. J. Many Feature Numbers Will Mark Opening of Atlanta Opera Club.

Much interest is being manifested in the forthcoming productions of "The Musical Whirl," to be given by the Atlanta Opera club at the performances of "The Mikado," and critics who witnessed that show pronounced it exceptionally good. Several of the club's sponsors requested that a production of combined minstrelsy and operatic classics be put on by the Atlanta Operaciub, and "The Musical Whirl" is the outgrowth of this idea. Everything from "When That Mobile Boy Sings the Memphis Blues" to Wagner's "Pilgrims' Chorus," appear in "The Musical Whirl," and those who have been witnessing the rehearsals are loud in praise for the efforts put forth by Cecil Poole, musical director.

Republicans Have Happy Air.

It has some analogy to the kickofi reflecting this energy on the part of the republicans and apathy on the part of the democrats. The republicans have the happy air of hungry persons who see the fat lands of milk and honey, the feasting a little cheering.

The Real Test.

ahead of, them. As one competent observer writes:

"At this stage of the campaign I have never seen the republicans better organized and more interested than now, and I have never witnessed less organized activity on the part of the democrats and lessenthusiasm on the part of individual democrats. It does not seem possible that the democrats can efficiently organize before election, and our conclusion is that they intend to rely on the intensive speaking campaign during the last three weeks. I may truthfully say, also, that up to this date I have heard of no republican who has expressed an intention of supporting the democratic ticket, while, on the other hand, there have been few towns into which I have gone, where I have not heard rumors that this or that democrat will either vote the republican licket or will not vote at all. My belief, however, is that as the campaign warms up the party call will be heard and heeded and that what now looks like a republican landslide will be a republican landslide will be a republican victory, exceeding the average of late years, but no unprecedented, by any means.

Why Democrats Are Suffering.

Why Democrats Are Suffering,

Why Democrats Are Suffering.
There seems to be no doubt that the democrats are suffering, among other things, from the usual discontent against the party in power. Many independent voters and some democrats talk of reckless extravagance by the Wilson administration, of "one-man power," and of the high cost of living, and in general reflect that vaguely dissatisfied state of feeling which expresses itself in "wanting a change,"

On the other hand there can be organization. His studies of the which expresses itself in "wanting a change."

On the other hand there can be no doubt whatever that the league of nations issue is disturbing to the republicans. Many of the republican leaders in Maine are trying to satisfy those voters who are interested in this issue by saying that the difference between Cox and Harding is the difference between "the" league of nations and "a" league of nations. This distinction between "the" and "a." by the way is coming to be characteristic of the discussion of the country. In Maine, one of the most competent observers I know writtes as follows: "A good many of the Maine voters have the idea that the republicans will lose a good many votes on this account. Some of the republicans have abandoned the league altogether, and the republicans will lose a good many votes on this account. Some of the republicans have not by any means abandoned the league in the form presented to Aberica by President Wilson, and that especially the republicans are against Artlele X. These republican-leaders are also predicting that America will be in a league of some sort within a very short time; either the presented in the stars either mofessionally or as a hobby: "The new star reported in the nobserver in Bristol, England, on Saturday night last, was easily located in the clear sky here last night. It has now attained a brilliancy of the second magnitude or to be exact about 2.3. Located in

Willing To Give It Trial. Willing To Give It Trial.

Another equally competent Maine observer, a republican, writes:

"Our people are not especially interested in the league of nations, and they wish that it might have been ratified with the Lodge reservations simply to get it out of the way. The feeling is that if there is any good in it, then they are perfectly willing to give it a trial, always with the understanding that none of their rights as a nation would be jeopardized. There is quite a sentiment against any league at all, but I think the majority feel about as I have stated."

Still another observer, also a republican, says: publican, says:

publican, says:

"My inquiries lead me to believe that outside the ministry and the teaching profession there are few who favor the league as submitted to the senate by the president. But I would hazard the guess that at this time a considerable majority of the people of Maine would approve the entrance of our country into the league with the senate reservations or the substance of them attached to the covenant, but not otherwise. I do not dare say this will be the sentiment in a month, for European conditions are militating against the league, and the drift of our people, as I sense it is away from the league rather than to it."

Your correspondent expects that after Senator Harding's speech at Marion next Saturday the league of nations issue, as between the parties, will look less clear-cut than it now does. After that speech there will be more justification for those republican leaders who claim that the distinction is merely between "the" league and "a" league. But until we see just how the republican candidate further *mplifies his position, and makes it more exact and detailed, there can be no doubt that the league of nations is troublesome to the republican leaders in Maine.

THE "SLUSH FUND" PROBE. Whatever it may or may not disclose, in the nature of inordinate committee's promised investigation of Governor Cox's charge that a "slush fund" of not less than $15,000,000 is being marshaled by the republican organization is bound to have a beneficial effect upon the presidential contest.

The political aspirations of several conspicuous contenders for the G. O. P. presidential nomination were wrecked by the investigation by this same senate committee prior to the Chicago convention, the probe disclosing the fact that some of those primary election candidates were being "greased" by funds greater than the total amounts that in the olden days were customarily expended in a major party presidential com-

One would think that those exposures would have been a lesson to those in charge of the republican campaign; that they would have been chary at least, and conservative in their acceptance of money from sources financially interested in republican "protection" and anti-league of nations success.

But it seems they were neither; for Governor Cox says that enormous amounts have be from those sources, that the goal is not less than $15,000,000, and that "I will prove my charges" at the proper time and in the most effective way. The senate committee has manifested commendable willingness to go to the bottom of this matter; and all that is needed to keep the campaign free from money-taint and contamination of corruption funds is to let in the light, that the people may see whence comes the sinews with which the battles of their candidates are being fought. Cox evidently is not afraid for the light to be turned on his campaign, else he would not have challenged the opposition.

Whether or not Harding is remains to be seen; but to date he has only categorically denied his opponent's charge.

Automobile Murderers

(From The Chicago Daily News) Ben W. Kittredge in his automobile ran down and killed a pedestrian named Kagan not long ago, and then sped away. tredge is reputed to be a million-The evidence showed that when he killed Kagan he had been drinking and was driving 50 miles an hour.

On Wednesday, after the payment of $10,000 to the victim's family, the charge of murder against Kittredge was annulled by the grand jury. He is free again, therefore, to return to his fast car, to continue to drink, to run down pedestrians and to flee in prudent cow-ardice when he hits one. "If guilty men are to escape in such man-ner." says Coroner Hoffman, "we might just as well stop holding inquests."

A REAL MENACE.

(From The Columbus Ledger.) Thoughtful Georgians realize that Hardwickism is the real menace to organized democracy in the state and they are beginning to concentrate efforts towards eliminating it trate efforts towards eliminating it. They are well aware of the fact that this menace has been materially strengthened by the influence of Populist Watson and Senator Smith, and that it will be necessary for all loyal and true democrats to stand together if the grand old state is to remain in the democratic fold, thus holding together the solid south.

It is known that Hardwick leaders are counting on controlling the would make an efficient governor.

A SILLY SCHEME.

(From The Rome Tribune-Herald.)
About the silliest proposition we've heard of in a long time has been the organized effort of Hoke Smith and his Atlanta organ to get people to write letters to Governor. Bits of New York Life BY O. O. McINTYRE

New York, August 24 .-It was after midnight.

And a sudden shower. Had driven me. Into the cheery doorway.

Under the sickly glare. Of a flaring gas jet. Who was looking out. With sightless eves.

And now and then a smile. Played around his mouth. And when the rain stopped. I walked out to him.

And said how cool it was. After the shower. And he said that it was. But everybody rushed home. And he guessed he would.

And he told me of his life. And how he prayed for strength. When he knew he was going. Into the Land of Darkness. And that it wasn't so bad. Then he told a funny story.

And I thought of my troubles. And how small they are. And we sat sileht a while. And I drank in the beauty. Of the midnight heavens.

Hung with patines of gold. And far down below. The silvery Hudson. Was rippling on to the sea.

The next morning she asked the boy if he understood and he said yes. But mother is still anxious and she writes to me about it.

I don't know, but I doubt that mother took the proper course. I think she should have asked the family doctor or any good doctor. How long should it take for fellow to get a complete cure of case of gonorrheal infection? ANSWER-Two out of three suc ANSWER—Two out of three such "fellows" are a good long while getting a complete cure. One out of three consults his physician promptly, follows the physician's directions implicitly and is completely cured within three os four months from the date of his infection. Too many victims drift into a chronic state and are never cured. This depends largely upon the early management of the disease, which is as serious as any disease a young man can have, though the poolroom halfwits and the cigar store sports and the other street loafers do not understand that—until they are hopelessly diseased. By cure I mean total eradication of the infection not merely a temporary disappearance of the more pronounced symptoms. A cure is not to be considered complete until careful microscopic examination by the physician has failed to demonstrate gonococci (the causative germs) after the expiration of three months from the date of infection. This little precaution, so readily ne lected by half fellows well met, would obviate mother took the proper course. I think she should have asked the family doctor or any good doctor to have a quiet talk with the boy and give him such information as a boy should have. If for some unusual reason this was not feasible, then the mother might have sought the aid of literature which is available from various sources nowadays. The public health service, Washington, D. C., sends on request free pamphlets on sex hygiene for boys and young men; or pamphlets for girls and young women. Every progressive state health department has the same pamphlets for free distribution. The American Social Hygiene association, Inc. 105 West Fortieth street, New York city, publishes innumerable pamphlets on every phase of the subject and makes only a nominal charge of a few cents for the pamphlets.

It is quite evident, in many letters I receive from parents, that there is a sad misunderstanding of the vital facts even by parents. Therefore, the parent is not competent to undertake the instruction of son or daughter without the assistance from some authoritative source.

Most of the books, purporting to tell the truth about this subject err in various ways. Unimportant triffes are grasly exaggerated; common and significant occurrences are misrepresented and made to seem dreadful: and the real dangers, which are terrible enough, are rather concealed in mystical phrases or vague suggestions.

There is one thing absolutely essential in the instruction of young people concerning the truths of life, and that is frankness. You can't deceive a child for long. And when the child finds out that von have misrepresented something of such paramount importance, what will be ty in the Atlanta theater Friday night.

The speaking tour made by former Attorney General Walker has been attended with enthusiastic assurances from his hearers that his election is certain, and the meeting to be held in Atlanta Friday night is expected to be in the nature of a triumphal rally.

The race for governor has lost every aspect of personal preference through the developments of the past few days, and has assumed the nature of a struggle between the friends and the enemies of democracy. Mr. Walker, standing upon a platform of old line democracy, is being assured that he will be chosen as the champion of the people. The race is regarded as between Walker and Hardwick, with Walker far in the lead.

Preliminary to the big rally of the Walker forces Friday night there will be held tonight a meeting at the candidate's headquarters, at which plans for the general campaign, as well as the plans for the Friday night rally, will be discussed.

Our little progressive town bothers no one, nor cares to be disturbed by outside bolsheviks -but when one enters our doors uninvited, we at least demand the same courtesy always extended to the stranger within our gates. But when a viper enters unawares, he should not be allowed to sting and escape unpunished. Therefore, we rise to remonstrate. Tom Watson and his colleagues entered Buford Wednesday afternoon, went to the only public house in the town, demanded his name be taken off the register (Why was it there?), supper served in his room and perfect seclusion and quiet, Now, who can demand in a public house everything and require everybody to cater to the whims of an old, wild, drunken man—as he proved to be?

Rightfully, he should have been refused entrance in a civilized, refined home, and sent on his way. He was not invited here, not wanted—but treated as a gentleman until he proved himself otherwise.

Now, by his own statement, Watson acknowledged he was under the influence of an intoxicant, and knew not what he was doing. After throwing a book at unsuspecting guests sitting in the lobby, talking, reading and playing cards, he cursed them most venomously, went back to his room and returned with the water pitcher and with the vilest oaths threatened to smash their heads, all this time standing above the lobby full of guests—in his night clothes. One of the guests called Miss Wiley to have him muleted. She, accompanied by Winfield Rowe, a merchant of our town, went up and tried to quiet him and get him back to his room. He cursed her with the vilest oaths and threatened them all with the pitcher smashed over their heads.

Miss Wiley then called for the town marshal. Watson's colleague ran and brought a pistol to resist arrest. After a time Watson was carried to the calaboose.

Next morning he defied doing any of it.

These facts can be substantiated by people from Gainesville, Toccoa, Demorest, Atlanta, Greenville, S. C.; Bristol, Tenn., and Buford.

Development of

A Normal Baby

An inexperienced mother is often at a loss to know whether her.baby is properly thriving, and may be unduly alarmed at small matters, or may not understand the serious nature of certain conditions. The best indications of a perfectly healthy baby are a steady gain in weight and quiet, peaceful sleep.

Am I losing out?"

Of course, it is a very young wife who put that question—but there are older ones who have the same dread of "losing out" in the presence of other women. And my answer is this: How is it that at these it little social affairs you have time to notice what he is doing—what he is saying—how he is enjoying himself. How is it that you are not occupied in a little saying and doing and enjoying on your own account? There are interesting people all about you, even talking to you. Are you giving these people a half-hearted, blank-eyed attention absolutely devoid of intelligent rsponse while you fix your every thought on him? Has the world, in other words, become for you one individual beyond whom you cannot live or move or think or act? And do you think that the people who meet you find in you the least attraction? And do you know that most of the "losing out" in the world is due to the persistant tendency in woman to worship her lord and master and make of him a god? Now a man is a mighty fine and comfortable sort of being to have a bout—but he is by no means the masterpiece that some wives seem to believe. HER BUSINESS COURSE AT THE SOUTHERN BUSINESS COLLEGE SOON DOUBLED HER SALARY

Fall Term Enrollment, Begins at the South's Most Popular Business School

The fall term enrollment of pupils has begun with unusual activity at the Southern Shorthand and Busi-ness University, 11 Whitehall street, and the indications point to the largest attendance for September in the history of this, the oldest and most wide-awake business training school in the south. school in the south.

The success of students speaks more forcefully than self-commentation, when it comes to proving the merits of any school; therefore, the Southern refers prospective pupils to the students that are daily zoing out from its class-rooms into splendid positions in Atlanta and other cities. The following letter, just received from a former pupil, shows satisfaction and appreciation of her course at the Southern, as well as her contentment with the nice position she is now enabled to till by reason of her business training: The success of students speaks

No campaign in Georgia has more significance or means more to your home section than does the campaign of "Patronize Home Industry."

When ALL the people of this state and section fully realize the tremendous importance to their home section of buying the things made at home—and when they adopt the general policy of calling for and using those things—then their home section will take on an era of prosperity never before enjoyed.

With scores of people this is already a fixed policy. They have seen the splendid benefits that come to their home community by aiding and patronizing home industries. They know how the money they have paid for things made at home come back to them again in the growth and development and prosperity of the community in which they live.

To those-both retailers and consumers-who have not made it a general practice to buy from home manufacturers, we ask your most thoughtful consideration of what it means to you—to your neighbors and friends-to your home section-to do so.

In spite of their lowly status in the league, they have succeeded in hôlding their own with the Crackers, and several weeks ago copped two games in a row for a sweep of the series against our then-rising Crackers.

Crackers.

York carries the old left-handed jinx over the Cracker hitters, and Cunningham is a problem at any period for the league leaders. As a result, the Crackers go into the Lookout series with an all-to-winnothing-to-lose expression. York Loses Hard One.

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 24.—
York allowed Birmingham only three fluke hits, every one of which should have been handled easily, but one of them followed a hit batsman and a passed ball in the third inning and the other two were bunched with a wild throw and an unsuccessful fielder's choice in the ninth inning, enabling Birmingham to win the rubber game of the series from Chattanooga, 3 to 2.

BLACK CRACKERS DIVIDE TWIN BILL WITHMONTGOMERY

BY FRED HANEY.

The Atlanta Black Crackers and the Montgomery Gray Sox divided a double-header yesterday, the Gray Sox taking the first encounter by the score of 3 to 1, while the Crackers won the second battle by the score of 5 to 3. The first game was a pitchers' battle between two southpaws, Gissentaner for Atlanta, and Streeter for Montgomery. Both pitchers were in fine form, Gissentaner fanning seven of the visitors, while his opponent was only able to make five of the Atlantans go back to their bench by the strike-out route.

Each side succeeded in setting

POLITICS MAKES STRANGE Turkish bath fellows. Both sides are all steamed up to grab the power of presidential veto and this November election may result in another baseball scandal, HARDING MAY SIGN up Babe Ruth to bat for him in the oratorical pinches. When the Babe gets a toe hold on the flower-and-chivalry-of-this-great-commonwealth and swings that but at this-glorious-star-spangled-nation, you can bet he will knock the principles-for-which-our-forefathers-fought-and-bled right through the sounding board.

THE ACOUSTICS ARE in for an awful beating this fall. If the democrats are wise, they will pass up the Babe and take a chance on the next two speakers.

WITH SISLER, COBB and Speaker all swinging the heavy lumber for the democrats, and Ruth, Hornsby and Ping Bodie socking for the repubs, the campaign will sound like a boatyard at the height of the rivet season. The Babe wil knock his audience so far that they will hear the angels quurreling in heaven.

DEBS COULD GRAB the election by signing up a herd of umpires and firing Cobb and Ruth right out of the tournament. The boys don't talk so good when an ump is aiming his rough thumb at the exit.

BRYAN WILL PROBABLY hook up with Nick Altrock and clown his way into Washington. Nobody will bother about signing up any pitchers. There is very little pitching in politics. It's all slugging. The left foul line is painted on what your great-grandfather did and the right foul line is painted on what you are liable to do if you get a chance.

Gifford Is Not the Worst Ump on Earth.

Worst Ump on Earth.

As a matter of pastime the sporting department attended the double bill at Ponce de Leon between the Black Crackers and the Montgomery Gray Sox. As a result of our close observations from the press box, we are willing to relieve Friend Gifford of his numerous medals for the punkest exhibition of umpiring in the world. Mistah Perkins is the new title-holder as far as our memory and observations reach. This Mistah Perkins possessed a masterful voice for battery announcements, a super-Chaplin pair of doks, and a style of his own in "putting on the cut-out," but as a guesser of balls and strikes he topped the list of all umps, present and past, for mis-guesses. Unlike Gifford, Perkins picked no favorites and used the Montgomery players about as handly as the Atlanta batters. The secret seemed to be the Chaplin-formed feet, for the fork-handed colored twirlers keep the hooks about as near the earth and Mistah Perkins of Gifford for self-protection with their right hand for neither knows when the pop bottles are coming their way.

Pels Get Surprise

Party From Memphians.

Several contemporary news sheets over the southern circuit hinted of liberal giving when the Chicks handed Dazzy Vance and Gil Myers to the Pels for Bob Dowle. Dazzy, when right, is about the choicest morsel of a strike-out twirler in the league, and since joining the Pels he has been whizzing them across in true form. Monday the Pels dropped into the Bluff City for a twin bill with the straggling sixth-place Tennesseans and received the big surprise of their lives by losing two games in the same day and practically putting the Trayelers back on an equal footing for first place. Red Torkleson and Dixie Walker were the victim of the Chick barrage. Which all goes to prove that you can't sometimes always tell the motives behind so-called shady deals of your fellowman.

all four defaulted to their opponents on the second day of the singles.

Saying that they were "over-tennised" and in need of a rest before the national championships, Pacific coast players, as a unit, today retired by defaults in the Meadow club tournament. As the field drew down to the round before the semifinals late in the day, Vincent Richards and Samuel Hardy, the latter the captain of the Davis cup team, were the outstanding performers. Richards, by a masterful display of volley and overhead strokes, accounted for the defeat of Francis T. Hunter, winner of the eastern New York state championship and several other titles this season. The score was 6-3, 8-6.

In the final set, Hunter came near to overwhelming Richards by his forehanders. The boy, however, set himself to the task of producing greater speed so that he pulled out the match.

Harding was extended to the limit of three sets to defeat H. S. Parker, of the Rockaway Hunting club, 2-6, 7-5, 6-3. In the second get Parker was several times within a stroke of winning, as he led at 5-2 on games. The leader of the international forces made a bold stand at this stage. Calling to his aid an infinite variety of strokes, Hardy overhauled his opponent to finish out the winner.

Marshall Neilans' big picture, "Go and Get It," a thrilling newspaper mystery done into film form, is drawing crowded houses at the Criterion theater this week. The play deals with the adventures of a newspaper reporter who is told to bring in one of the most amazing stories ever conceived. Pat O'Malley in the leading role is a daring hero, and while in pursuit of his story has many fascinating and harrowing experiences. His stunts in an acroplane are remarkable; especially is this true of his jump from a train moving at 60 miles an hour to an aeroplane passing overhead, and his climb into the seat of the plane by a rope ladder. Additional features of the program this week are Topics of the Day, Pathe Review and vocal solos by Byron Warner, the well known Atlanta tenor.

"Fickle Women."

"Fickle Women," the new comedy-drama which is to be shown next week at the Tudor theater, is a serio-comic study of feminine constantly. The story is handled so deftily that no matter how sympathles are appealed to, in only a few flickers one is lamphing again.

FROM UNITED STATES

Berlin, August 24.—The steamers New Rochelle and Susquehanna, which arrived at Danzig from the United States with 1,800 and 1,500 returned Polish emigrants, respectively, will in all probability be forced to carry the Poles back to that country, according to the Danzig correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung. It is asserted that Poland has declined to permit them to enter, as the men who are eligible for military service refuse to be enlisted. The Poles are still interned at Troyl camp. The two vessels, which are of American register, also carry a cargo of war supplies.

AMERICAN EXCHANGE. York, August 24.—(Special.) were ruling prices on the Am and Grain Exchange, Inc.,

New York, August 24.—After making new low records early today, the cotton market recovered 140 to 167 points of its recent losses, with December selling up from 24.45 to 26.10 and closing at 26.00. The general list closed steady, with prices showing advances of from 75 to 140 points for the day.

The market was extremely nervous

The market was extremely nervous and irregular during the early trad-ing. The opening was barely steady at an advance of 5 points to a de-cline of 10 points, and all prices sold into new low ground owing to weak Liverpool cables, nervousness over the threatened British coal strike, continued bearish domestic trade continued bearish domestic trade news, lower foreign exchange and prospects for better weather in the south. October broke to 25.68 and January to 23.75, with active months generally showing net declines of 30 to 38 points. Covering was very active on the decline, however, and the demand became more general as the offerings subsided with local, Wall street and western shorts particularly heavy buyers. There was also buying for trade account, and the advance seemed to be stimualted during the early afternoon by unconfirmed rumors of a bullish private crop report. October sold up to 27.30 and January to 25.40, or about 112 to 137 points net higher on the active positions, and the close was a few points off from the best under realizing. Local brokers characterized the advance as an overdue reaction after the big declines of the past two or three weeks, and reported a disposition to cover short contracts owing to an idea that the market had been oversold and uncertainty as to the showing of endaugust condition and crop figures. Claims that the price had declined below the cost of production were also heard in some quarters, but generally speaking the bulk of the buying was attributed to covering. news, lower foreign exchange and

New York, August 24.—Spot ton quiet; middling 33.50. WIDE REACTIONS AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, August 24.—Wide reactions from the long decline were made by cotton today, the market rising 161 to 184 points from the low levels reached in the early trading when, at one time, the active months were 36 to 51 points under the close of yesterday. Last prices were at net advances for the session of 122 to 130 points. The reactions were due mainly to the general realizing of profits by holders of long contracts, although once the upward movement was well under way a fair amount of fresh buying for long account was felt, especially after the receipt of the report that the northern Russian army had offered to surrender. Highest prices were reached late in the session, and at these levels the sian army had offered to surrender. Highest prices were reached late in the session, and at these levels the market was 125 to 136 points over the final prices of yesterday. October traded up to 26.38, which compared with 24.54 as the low price of the day.

pared with 24.54 as the low pitch of the day.

The opening was lower and declines persisted for a short time under the influence of poor cables, better weather over the belt and an unfavorable view of foreign trade conditions. The market was steady at the decline, for, from the outset, the tendency among old shorts was to take profits.

Summary for the Cotton Region States.

New Orleans, August 24.—Temperatures are from 4 to 12 degrees below the seasonal average, except along the coast where normal. Light to heavy showers occurred scatteringly over the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, and thence westward along the coast and into central Texas.—Cline.

Minimum temperatures are for 12-hour period ending at 7 a. m. this date, z Highest yesterday, † Lowest for 24 hours ending 8 a. m., 75th meridian time, except where otherwise indicated.

PROFESSIONAL VIEWS ON COTTON SITUATION

New Orleans, August 24.—(Special.)—The early selling which carried prices on all months into new low ground for the season was encouraged by another big break in liverpool, futures there at one time being was encouraged by another big break in Liverpool, futures there at one time being 87 penny points lower, while fully midding American spots were marked down 203 penny points, or over 4 cents a pound. Taking the profits on a large scale by leading short interests, professionals playing for a reaction and trade buying all combined to check the selling movement and finally brought about a reactionary tendency, which became quite pronounced in the afternoon session. Tight money has had more than anything else to do with the recent slump in values, and until the federal reserve board adopts a more liberal policy and acts to relieve the banking situation we look for no real recovery in the cotton market.

Weather conditions over the belt have become much more favorable, and as soon as 'the weekly weather report is fissued to morrow we expect to see the resumption of the selling movement, as sentiment generally is still bearish.

NORMAN MAYER & CO. New York, August 24.—(Special.)—The market falled to meet the decline in Liverpool this morning and heavy short covering appeared on the idea that prices had gone so low that the south would refuse to follow the decline. After such a very radical decline the market is entitled to this reaction, and we would not be at all surprised if we had an even further recovery.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

New York, August 24.—(Special.)—Heavy short covering for local and western accounts under the belief that the market is temporarily oversold and fear that private condition reports may bring fresh buying into the market was the cause of today's sharp advance.

The situation in the dry goods and yarn markets is unchanged excent for reports

The situation in the dry goods and yarm onarkets is unchanged except for reports of moderate inquiries for supplies. Liverpool cables say long liquidation is over. There can be little doubt but that the downward readjustment means an establishment of a lower level of prices for the conduct of business generally and with this changed economic situation it seems improbable that cotton prices will experience anything more than temperary upturns. Business operations have changed and it seems that price levels must reflect the situation. ORVIS BROS. & CO.

Dry Goods.

New York, August 24.—Cotton goods were weak in the dry goods market here today. The volume of trading was light and influenced greatly by declining cotton mar-kets. Yarns were easy and quiet, and silk-sold in medierate quantities. There was lit-tle new business reported in wool goods. Jobbers are doing a light business, buyers purchasing in small lots.

Jobbers are doing a light business, Duyers purchasing in small lots.

The local market for raw sugar continued easy and San Domingos recently arrived were offered at 10½ cents, c.i.f., without I finding buyers, and it was understood that a cargo of two Porto Ricos are en route here. There is little demand at the moment for any raws, refiners holding off for an improvement in the demand for grantlated. Cubas in port are being offered at 11 cents, with bids solicited.

The only future of interest in the refined market was the withdrawal of the leading interest which had been nominally holding refinery to meet that made by others, it was felt that luasmuch as resales are said to have been made at prices ranging from 15½ to 18 cents less 2 per cent for cash refiners would all have to do business at the level of 17 to 17.10 cents already established by practically all the big interests, which was the closing range today. Futures were affected by the heaviness in raws again and showed a general net decline of 10 to 63 points. Sugar interests sold near positions at the raw situation, while Cuban houses gave support to late months.

Stocks Show Reactionary Trend on Opening, But Make Abrupt Reversal in Final Hours in Vigorous

New York, August 24.—Increased weakness of foreign exchange and further detachment of public interest accounted chiefly for the reactionary trend of today's stock market, during which transportation shares stood out most of the session as the only noteworthy exceptions.

Equipments Decline One to One and One-Half Points - Rails Firm in Monday Market.

BY WALTER B. BROWN, Editor, New York Commercial. Written for the United News. Written for the United News.

New York, August 24.—Following the example of recent Monday4, there was some reaction in today's stock market from the records established at the close of the week. The volume of trading was also greatly reduced, and operations were almost wholly professional The news of the day had little or no effect and the turn of affairs in Poland seemed to have been disregarded.

Industrial stocks sagged considerably, although not going beyond a natural reaction. Declines from a point and a half to 2 points were made in equipments, notably Bald win Locomotive and American Carand Evendry Steel common and win Locomotive and American Car and Foundry. Steel common and the independent steels were down to about a point and a half, while Vanadium and Replogle were ex-ceptions, offering sharp resistance to the selling pressure. The latter ceptions, offering sharp resistance to the selling pressure. The latter was due to the return from Europe of J. P. Replogle with some large contracts, and also with an optimistic view of European conditions. The rails, on the other hand, were quite firm, under the leadership of Reading. Southern Pacific and Union Pacific, although some of the lew-priced stocks were also in fayor.

Undoubtedly the credit situation continues to be responsible for the check not only to the stock market but to business in general. It represents a present obstacle which has to be dealt with despite the most optimistic beliefs that everything will work out all right.

The belief is growing in important circles that President Mitchell of the Illinois Trust and Savings bank, spoke correctly when he said that the peak of the credit strain had been passed. The trouble is that it is not far enough in the rear to afford appreciable relief, and that only those who are in as close touch with affairs as Mr. Mitchell is can sense the change. Even some of our eastern bankers are not so ready to agree with Mr. Mitchell because they, too, are a little farther away from what may be termed "the scene of operation" than he is, so that it is as yet rather hard to convince a great many peoplithat conditions have taken a turn for the better.

Admittedly the cause of the strain has been the necessity for taking care of the crops, and western bankers are apt to be in the best position to estinate crop-moving needs. It seemed to take a long time, for instance, for the public to comprehend that the worst of the railway crisis had gene by, and even now it is hard to convince many who are crisis had gone by, and even nov it is hard to convince many who are still suffering inconveniences that such is the case, yet reports from such is the case, yet reports from authoritative sources confirm this belief in regard to the railroads, and it will not be very long before a similar understanding is shown in regard to the credit situation. In regard to the credit situation.

As soon as this becomes generally realized it will mean a great change both in the stock market situation and in general trade conditions. It is bearing down rather heavily on the latter for the time being and causing a great deal of pessimistic talk, but it is a situation that will correct itself in dutime.

Carey Roofings include built-up specifications, ready roll roofings, Asfaltslate shingles. All are made of the purest genuine Asphalt obtainable.

This is refined and tempered by special CAREY processes which are the result of 47 years of experience in the manufacture of Asphalt roofings.

This careful refining, tempering and compounding explains why Carey roofings do not crack during the coldest winters nor become brittle-why they do not soften and run in summer nor dry out even after years of exposure in hot climates.

They resist fumes, water, acids, sparks, gas, ice, storms, steam, cinders, and sunlight; they are made to wear longer, and they do.

Mr. Edwards' letter follows:

Atlanta, Ga., August 24, 1920.
Governor Hugh M. Dorsey, State Capitol.
Atlanta, Ga.

My Dear Governor: I have been pained to read recently in a certain Atlanta aftermoon paper a series of harpings and unfair criticisms based on your veto of a tax exemption bill applying locally to one of our fraternal institutions for the care of crippled children. I have tried to be generous in my judgment on the genulmenss of attitude on the part of your critics who ery aloud in hysterical tones about their indignation. Frankly, I am disgusted with the patent insincerity of these veiled attacks made in the vain hope that for some or any reason your defeat in the present senatorial race may be accomplished. When any attempt is made to array Masons in a political controversy, the attempt always falls ignomipously, as will this one. All true Masons know and feel deeply the truth of this assertion, but in justice to our order, it is well that the record of all Masonry should be kept free from all political aint or tarnish.

I know that you are a Mason, holding in your heart the highest sense of obligation to duty and the tenderest feelings of collectation for the crippled children of this commonwealth. Realizing your mixed feelings of regard for duty on the one hand and deep solicitude for the welfare of these unfortunate little children, I know and appreciate how trying a time in your career as governor of our state it was when your exalted sense of duty and obligation under the paramount law of our state impelled you to throw expediency to the winds and to adhere to your solemn convictions as to your duty.

Regardless of affiliations, political or fraternal, you, as chief executive of our commonwealth, have and will receive the plaudits of all good and true men for your manly and courageous action in doing what you conceived to be your duty under the law and in the interest of all the people, notwithstanding that to have acted otherwise might have leasened by one the uncalled for and unfair attacks

Speaking Dates.

So many requests are being made for speeches by Governor Dorsey that it is physically impossible for him to go to one-tenth of the places whence calls come, He is booked up for this week in southwest Georgia until Saturday, when he will go to Cedartown and Carrollton, with possibly a stop at Buchanan. Ten or twelve speeches will be all he can make next week. After next week, there will be but two days left before the primary. fore the primary.

In a letter to Dorsey headquarters, Paul M. Atkinson, of Madison, Ga. says:

"The Smith speaking here last Saturday, although it had been well advertised was a dismal failure, and I am quite sure that it did not add one vote to his candidacy. Instead of there being 500 present, as claimed by The Atlanta Journal, on 100 benches and chairs, there were less than 200 present on about nine benches and some chairs.

"The truth of the matter is the fight in this county is between Dorsey adn Watson. And with the good work we are doing I do not believe there is a doubt but that Morgan county will go for Hugh Dorsey on September 8."

The Dorsey managers were never more confident than they are now over the situation in Fulton county. The race in this county is agreed to be between Dorsey and Watson, with every prospect that Senator Smith will run a much poorer race in his home county than he did in April.

April.

Here are a few of the extracts from the hundreds of letters refrom the hundreds of letters re-ceived Tuesday from every section of the state, showing the trend of the situation:

FOR LACK OF CEMEN

Fulton County Now Facing Serious Situation, Says Paul Etheridge.

The Fulton county commission Thomas E. Watson for United States received notice Tuesday that the the department of justice, bureau of senator and Thomas W. Hardwick for governor, a statewide organization was completed Tuesday by the Georgia division of the American Legion, at a meeting held in the campaign headquarters in the Healey building.

Committeemen in each congressional district were named. They are as follows:

Allen L. Henson, general chairman, in charge of the statewide campaign: Trammell Scott, Atlanta; Baxter Jones, Macon; R. S. Rodenberry, Moultrie; E. C. B. Danforth, Augusta; Sam Cann, Savannah; W. P. Whelcel, Gainesville; A. S. Camp, Newnan; J. E. Nunnally, Munroe; Frank Gabrels, Clarkesville, and William Simon, Barnesville.

Allen L. Henson, of Calhoun, newly-lected state commander, took active charge of the campaign.

The committeemen to justice, bureau of the public company at Richard City, Tenn, near Chattanooga, has been forced looks close because of lack of coal, which will mean that all the paving the paul S. William for the public committee of the country and the commissioners of the statewide country, and the commissioners say that it is the only available plant. The discontinuance of the cement will affect not only the big Spring project but will stop of the campaign Tuesday. Delegates from many sections of the state attended the gathering. Mr. Henson announced that he would remain in Atlanta and personally supervise the campaign.

The various committeemen were in the campaign the arrest of the country and city." Hardwick cement plant of the Dixie Portland in regard to the shutting off of the cement supply:

"The closing of the cement plant puts use face to face with a more serious crisis than mere differences beteen the county and city." "Under present conditions we simply will be prevented from laying concrete paving in both the city and county. The situation is serious and there is no use in trying to disguise that fact. If we can't get cement, we can't pave Spring street, nor put down any other concrete paving."

The county has taken no further paving."

The county has taken no further action in regard to the fining of a county truck driver Saturday in police court by Recorder Pro Tem. Gordon Hurtel.

COOLEST WEATHER OF DAYS RECORDED HERE ON TUESDAY

Continued fair weather with little change in temperature is the offering of Weather Expert von Herrmann for this city and vicinity today. The genial meteorologist reports an area of high atmospheric pressure extending southwest from the upper lakes which now controls the weather situation throughout the south and east. In consequence clear skies and absence of precipitation prevail in this section.

Tuesday's temperature of 62 at 8 a. m. was the coolest since the 5th of August. By noon it was hitting 10 degrees higher.

During the past thirty-six hours very little rain was reported in the cotton belt. Temperatures are moderately lower in the central and eastern part of the belt, and moderately lower in the central and eastern part of the belt, and moderate temperatures will continue.

"I was a great sufferer of stomach and liver trouble and cannot say enough in praise of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It has done so much for me and I am recommending it to other sufferers. I was a trained nurse in Marine and other hospitals years ago, therefore many come to me for advice. I certainly received great benefit from Mayr's Wondrful Runedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Between Tenth and Eleventh streets we offer a 9-room frame, composition roof dwelling. This house has steam heat and needs some interior work in addition to coat of paint on outside. Lot is 55x150 feet, adjoining the corner of Eleventh street. We recommend this to the conservative investor as the ground value of this property is worth the price asked. Reasonable possession.
